

HIS 312: FINAL RESEARCH PROJECT Guidelines on sources for all teams

I provide below STARTING POINTS for your final research project on India's partition. I would recommend that you run a list of final sources by me BEFORE you start work on writing up the research project. The use of ANY web sites except those I have listed below (and other than those of scholarly journals) MUST, repeat MUST, be cleared by me first. Failing to do that will have serious consequences for your grade for the project.

ALL TEAMS should start work by CAREFULLY reading Mushirul Hasan's "Introduction" from his India's Partition: Process, Strategy and Mobilization. Delhi : Oxford University Press, 1993. <http://jan.ucc.nau.edu/~sj6/hasanprologintro.pdf>. I advise you to look at the published sources listed in the footnotes and follow up on those that seem relevant to the position you have chosen to represent.

Cline library does not have all the sources listed below, and certainly will not have all the resources you need for your research. So please make sure you put in requests for some of these from Inter Library Loan. Look at "Request Materials" under "Library Services" of the Cline Library page <http://www.nau.edu/library/> to make requests.

PLEASE SHARE RESOURCES WITH OTHER TEAMS WHEN NECESSARY.
