Revised Schedule for HIS 314 April 1, 2019 to May 3, 2009

SECTION IV. INDIA AFTER NEHRU: POPULISM AND ITS DANGERS
April 1-3 Recourse to Populism: Indira is India
   Required Readings
   Guha, Chapters Eighteen to Twenty.

April 8 How the Other Half Lived
   Required Readings
   Gidla, Chapters Four to Seven.

April 10 Consequence of Populism
   Required Readings
   Guha, SKIM Chapter Twenty One, READ Twenty Two and Twenty Three.

April 15 Dynasty and Democracy
   Required Readings
   Guha, Chapters Twenty Four and Twenty Five.

April 17 Gidla’s Story
   Required Readings
   Gidla, Chapters Eight to Ten

Questions for Discussion Three assigned April 17th

April 22 Indian Democracy
   Required Readings
   Guha, Chapters Twenty Six, Twenty Seven, and Twenty Eight.

April 24 DISCUSSION # 3: Evaluating Indian Democracy

SECTION V. CASTE IN INDIA: Focus on DALITS (Readings subject to change)
April 29 Caste and Indian Society
   Required Readings (subject to change)
   1. Gidla, Afterword
   2. Bama Faustina, “Scorn” (A Short Story) Little Magazine (Vol. VI, 4&5) Read BOTH parts of the story, Part I and Part II
   Recommended
   English Subtitled Episode 10 “Dignity for All” under the heading “Breaking the Shackles” from the television show, Satyamev Jayate.

May 1 Caste and Indian Politics
   Required Readings (subject to change)

PAPER EVALUATING Ants Among Elephants due by May 3rd in my office by 3 pm. If I am not there, please leave it in the History Office, requesting a time stamp. THERE IS NO FINAL EXAM FOR THIS COURSE.