

“thank you for helping me through some hard times”

“Just having someone there to listen to me while I sorted my thoughts was great”

“I also appreciated your encouragement and understanding”

“I really feel like you did a lot to help us as a couple”

“I appreciate the work you did and feel like I learned a lot about relationships”

“I am doing a lot better. I have a much stronger ability to stop myself during heated situations, and check it out from others’ point of view”

“As my emotional intelligence develops I am feeling like I am better able to stop myself from impulsively reacting to things”

“You helped me take out the dusty parts of my mind and organize them better”

“I think you were very helpful and empathic. You helped me to think things out clearly. You thought of everything I needed to think about, and showed me you cared about me”

“You guys really made a difference for me and my son...it was fabulous, both counselors – mine and my sons – were very good about helping us feel comfortable. This really helped me and my son feel much closer”

“Wished we could’ve had more sessions. I’m gonna miss it”

“you guys get ‘A’s’...I’d give you guys a thousand dollars”

“You got more out of me in 2 meetings than another professional counselor got out of me in 5 sessions”

“High Fives”
